EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT/REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Anthony J. O'Lenick JR on 7/07/04.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, page 28, two lines above the last line, the terms "R¹, R², R³ and R⁴," has been deleted.

In claim 1, page 29, line 1, the terms "R¹, R², R³ and R⁴" has been deleted and the term --- R⁵, R⁶, R⁷, R⁸ R⁹, R¹⁰ and R¹¹ --- has been inserted therefor.

In claim 1, page 29, the comma "," at the end of the claim been deleted and the punctuation ---- . ----- has been inserted thereof.

A period has been inserted at the end of claim 2, claim 3, claim 10 and claim 11.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The examiner has found claim 1-16 to be unobvious over the prior art of record and therefore to be allowable over the prior art of record. The present invention relates to a process for conditioning hair and skin which comprises contacting the hair and skin with an alkyl polyglycoside composition of specifically defined structures. The most relevant prior art documents (US 5,428,142 and US 5,498,703) to this invention disclose the use of silicone-containing glycosides of similar basic core structure, for conditioning the hair and skin.

Art Unit: 1623

However, though the composition of present invention are generally similar to those claimed in the prior art documents, the structures of the compositions possess differences that are unobvious to those of the prior art. In particular, alkyl polyglycosides of the instant invention do not contain silicone. The said differences in structure are unobvious over the prior art documents.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
